

I do not want telemarketing calls from anyone. I will not buy from or donate to anyone as a result of a phone call. If the caller isn't a friend or family the call will go to my answering machine. My home is my castle. The ringing of a phone is a request for PERMISSION to enter that castle, not a demand for a command performance. I refuse to let it control me